

Julia Savransky-Perl

Fontend Developer

Web developer, looking for my next challenge... Fast learner with excellent analytical skills, passionate about new technologies. I have volunteering experience in the She Codes community as a Web module Leader, supporting course participants in their studies of JavaScript and React-JS. Also, I contributed to the open-source project "Brave Together", and soon will take part in the "Hackotism" initiative for people with ASD. I'm looking for a Junior Frontend Developer position where I can bring great value with my knowledge and skills.
